Part 2—Consultation and Dispute Resolution

8. Consultation regarding major workplace change

8.1 Employer to discuss change

(a) Employer to notify

Where an employer has made a definite decision to introduce major changes in production, program, organisation, structure or technology that are likely to have significant effects on employees, the employer must notify the employees who may be affected by the proposed changes and their representatives such as the Unions.

(b) Significant effects include termination of employment; major changes in the composition, operation or size of the employer's workforce or in the skills required; the loss of or reduction in job opportunities, promotion opportunities or job tenure; the alteration of hours of work; the need for retraining or transfer of employees to other work or locations; and the restructuring of jobs.

(c) Where this agreement makes provision for alteration of any of these matters an alteration is deemed not to have significant effect.

(d) The employer must promptly consider any matters raised by the employees or their representatives about the changes in the course of the discussion under clause 8.2(a).

of work, the employer must consult with the employees affected and their representatives, if any, about the proposed change.

- (b) The employer must:

- 9.1 In the event of a dispute about any matter under this Agreement or the NES, in the first instance the parties must attempt to resolve the matter at the workplace by discussions between the employee or employees concerned and the relevant supervisor.
- 9.2 If such discussions do not resolve the dispute, the parties will endeavour to resolve the dispute in a timely manner by discussions between the employee or employees concerned and more senior levels of management as appropriate.
- 9.3 An employer or employee may appoint another person, organisation or association to accompany and/or represent them for the purposes of this clause.
- 9.4 If a dispute about a matter arising under this agreement or a dispute in relation to the NES is unable to be resolved at the workplace, and all appropriate steps under clause 9.1 have been taken, a party to the dispute may refer the dispute to the FWC.
- 9.5 Unless otherwise stated in this Agreement, the parties agree that the FWC shall have the power to do all such things as are necessary for the just resolution of the dispute including mediation, conciliation and finally arbitration.
- 9.6 Where the matter in dispute remains unresolved, the FWC may exercise any method of dispute resolution permitted by the Act that it considers appropriate to ensure the settlement of the dispute.
- 9.7 While the dispute resolution procedure is being conducted, work must continue in accordance with this agreement and the Act. Subject to applicable occupational health and safety legislation, an employee must not unreasonably fail to comply with a direction by the employer to perform work, whether at the same or another workplace, that is safe and appropriate for the employee to perform.

10. Staff Time Requirements, Additional Hours and Workload Management

- 10.1 The parties are committed to delivering aged care services that align with industry best practice and that maintain safe systems of work for the benefit of all staff and residents, including meeting any Government-mandated minimum staff time requirements. Wherever possible, existing employees will be offered any additional hours that may become available because of the minimum time requirements on a permanent basis to promote meaningful job security.

- 10.2 The parties to this agreement acknowledge that employees and management have a responsibility to maintain a balanced workload and recognise the adverse effects that excessive workloads may have on employee/s and the quality of resident/client care.

Part 3—Types of Employment and Termination of Employment

11. Types of employment

11.1 Employment categories

Employees under this agreement will be employed in one of the following categories:

- (a) full-time;
- (b) part-time; or
- (c) casual.

At the time of engagement an employer will inform each employee whether they are employed on a full-time, part-time or casual basis. An employer may direct an employee to carry out such duties that are within the limits of the employee's skill, competence and training, consistent with the respective classification.

11.2 Full-time employment

A full-time employee is one who is engaged to work 38 hours per week or an average of 38 hours per week pursuant to clause 23 (a) of this agreement.

11.3 Part-time employment

- (a) A part-time employee is an employee who is engaged to work less than full-time hours of an average of 38 hours per week and has reasonably predictable hours of work.
- (b) Nurses: Before commencing part-time employment, the employer and employee will agree in writing to the guaranteed minimum number of hours to be worked and the rostering arrangements which will apply to those hours.
- (c) Aged Care Employees: Before commencing employment, the employer and employee will agree in writing on a regular pattern of work including the number of hours to be worked each week, the days of the week the employee will work and the starting and finishing times each day.
- (d) A part-time employee will be rostered to a minimum of three hours for each engagement.
- (e) The terms of the agreement in (b) may be varied by agreement and recorded in writing.
- (f) Unless otherwise stated, the terms of this agreement will apply on a pro rata basis to part-time employees on the basis that the ordinary weekly hours for full-time employees are 38.
- (g) Notwithstanding the overtime provisions prescribed at Clause 29 of the Agreement, a part time employee may agree to work in excess of their rostered ordinary hours at the ordinary time rate of pay, provided that all time worked by a part-time employee which exceeds 10 hours per day or 76 hours per fortnight, will be paid at the rate of time and a half for the first two hours and double time thereafter, except on Saturdays and Sundays when overtime will be paid for at the rate of double time and on public holidays when overtime will be paid at the rate of double time and a half.
- (h) No part-time employee shall be directed to work in excess of their rostered ordinary hours.

11.4 Annual review of part-time hours

- (a) At the written request of an employee, the hours worked by the employee will be reviewed annually. Where the employee is regularly working more than their specified contract hours, then the employee’s ordinary hours shall be adjusted by the employer, to reflect the hours regularly worked. The hours worked in the following circumstances will not be incorporated in the adjustment:
 - (i) if the increase in hours is as a direct result of an employee being absent on leave, such as for example, annual leave, long service leave, parental leave, workers compensation; and
 - (ii) if the increase in hours is due to a temporary increase in hours only due, for example, to the specific needs of a resident or client.
- (b) Any adjusted contracted hours resulting from a review, should, however, be such as to readily reflect roster cycles and shift configurations utilised at the workplace.

11.5 Casual employment

- (a) A casual employee is an employee engaged as such on an hourly basis in accordance with s.15A of the Act.
- (b) A casual employee will be paid an hourly rate equal to 1/38th of the weekly rate appropriate to the employee’s classification plus a casual loading of 25%.
- (c) Casual employees will be paid a minimum of 2 hours for each engagement.
- (d) Casual Nurses will be paid afternoon and night shift allowances calculated on the base rate of pay excluding the casual loading with the casual loading component then added to the penalty rate of pay. Penalties paid for Saturdays, Sundays, public holidays and overtime will be compounded by the casual loading.
- (e) For Aged Care Employees, the casual loading shall not be compounded by any penalties contained within this Agreement except for overtime. With the exception of overtime, penalties shall be calculated on the base rate of pay, excluding the casual loading, with the casual loading component then added on to the penalty rate of pay. Penalties for overtime will be calculated on the loaded casual rate.

11.6 Offers and requests for casual conversion

A casual employee who has been employed for 12 months or more and worked regularly for the last 6 months of that period will be offered conversion to permanent employment by the employer in accordance with sections 66B to 66M of the Act. Such employee may also request conversion to permanent employment. Offers and requests for conversion of casual employees to permanent employment under this clause will be made in accordance with the Act.

Unless otherwise mutually agreed at the time of termination the employee must provide to the employer the same period of notice as listed in 12.1, except that there is no requirement on the employee to give the additional notice based on the age of the employee concerned.

Casual employees shall only be required to give notice to the end of their current shift worked.

If an employee who is at least 18 years old does not give the period of notice required under clause 12.1(a), then the employer may deduct from wages due to the employee under this Agreement an amount that is no more than one week's wages for the employee.

The Employer may, without notice, summarily dismiss an employee at any time for serious misconduct as defined in 1.07 of the Fair Work Regulations 2009. Payment is made up to the time of dismissal only.

To the extent permitted by the Act, any outstanding advances or other payments due to the Employer by the Employee will be deducted before payment of any amounts under this clause are made.

12.3 Payment of wages

If the employer gives notice of termination to an employee, termination payments will be made by way of Electronic Funds Transfer no later than 7 days after the employee's employment terminates.

If an employee gives notice of termination to the employer, termination payments will be made by way of Electronic Funds Transfer in the next pay cycle immediately following the end of the termination pay period. In unforeseen circumstances however the employer will review the date the termination payment will be made.

The employer will give the employee a statement of service signed by the employer stating the period of employment and when the employment was terminated.

12.4 Abandonment of employment

Where an employee is absent from work for a continuous period of more than two working days without consent of the employer, and without notification to the employer, the employer will attempt to contact the employee by telephone. If there is still no response then the employer will contact the employee in writing or by email. If after 5 days the employer has not received a satisfactory response, the employer will be entitled to inform the employee by written correspondence that unless the employee provides a satisfactory explanation for his or her absence, the employee will be considered to have abandoned employment.

In that event, the employee will be provided with notice of termination in accordance with the Act.

13. Redundancy

13.1 An employee is entitled to be paid redundancy pay by the employer if the employee's employment is terminated:

- (a) at the employer's initiative because the employer no longer requires the job done by the employee to be done by anyone, except where this is due to the ordinary & customary turnover of labour; or
- (b) because of the insolvency or bankruptcy of the employer.

13.2 Minimum payments

(a) Where the employee is under 45 years of age, the employer shall pay the employee

Minimum Years of Service	Retrenchment Pay

(c) "Week's pay" means the Employee's average actual weekly earnings over the preceding twelve months from the date of termination, and shall include in addition to the ordinary pay any over-agreement payments and the following, if applicable

- (i) shift allowances;
- (ii) weekend penalties;
- (iii) any other entitlements.

13.3 Transfer to lower paid duties

- (a) Where an employee is transferred to lower paid duties because of redundancy, the same period of notice must be given as the employee would have been entitled to if the employment had been terminated.
- (b) If the employer transfers the employee to the new duties without giving notice of transfer, or before the expiry of a notice of transfer, the employer must pay the employee the amount equal to the difference between the former ordinary time rate of pay and the ordinary time rate of pay for the number of weeks of notice still owing. 'Ordinary rate of pay' is inclusive of all purpose allowances, shift rates and penalty rates applicable or ordinary hours.

13.4 Employee leaving during notice period

An employee given notice of termination in circumstances of redundancy may terminate their employment during the period of notice. The employee is entitled to receive the benefits and payments they would have received under this clause had they remained in employment until the expiry of the notice period, but is not entitled to any payment in lieu of any remaining notice remaining after the employee ceased to be employed.

13.5 Job search entitlement

(a) Nurses

- (i) In addition to the entitlements in the NES, an employee is entitled to an additional week of annual leave on the same terms and conditions.
- (ii) A shiftworker, for the purposes of the additional week's annual leave provided by the NES, is an employee who:
 - is regularly rostered over 7 days of the week; and
 - regularly works on weekends.
- (iii) To avoid any doubt, this means that a nurse who is not a shiftworker for the purposes of clause 32.1(a)(ii) above is entitled to 5 weeks of paid annual leave for each year of service with their employer, and a nurse who is a shiftworker for the purposes of clause 32.1(a)(ii) above is entitled to 6 weeks of paid annual leave for each year of service with their employer.

(b) Aged Care Employees

- (i) For the purposes of the NES a shiftworker is defined as:

 - (B) an employee who works for more than four ordinary hours on 10 or more weekends.
- (ii) For the purpose of the clause 32.1(b)(i), a weekend means work in ordinary time on a Saturday and/or a Sunday in any one calendar week.

- (d) However, a direction by the employer is of no effect if it would result at any time in the employee's remaining accrued entitlement to paid annual leave being less than 6 weeks when any other paid annual leave arrangements are taken into account;
- (e) The direction must not require the employee to take any period of paid annual leave of less than one week; must not require the employee to take a period of paid annual leave beginning in less than 8 weeks, or more than 12 months, after the direction is given; and must not be inconsistent with any leave arrangement agreed by the employer and employee.
- (f) Subject to the conditions outlined in the sub-clauses (d) and (e), and employee with excessive leave may give a written notice to the employer requesting to take one or more periods of paid annual leave.
- (g) The employer must grant paid annual leave requested by a notice under clause 32.2(f).

- (a) Before going on annual leave, an employee will be paid the amount of wages they would have received for ordinary time worked had they not been on leave during that period.
- (b) At the election of the employee, such payment will be made in accordance with the usual pay cycle.

33.4 Cashing out of annual leave

Annual leave credited to an employee may be cashed out, subject to the following conditions:

- (a) paid annual leave must not be cashed out if the cashing out would result in the employee's remaining accrued entitlement to paid annual leave being less than four weeks; and
- (b) each cashing out of a particular amount of paid annual leave must be by a separate agreement in writing between the employer and the employee; and
- (c) the employee must be paid at least the full amount that would have been payable to the employee had the employee taken the leave that the employee has forgone.

33.5 Annual leave loading

- (a) In addition to their ordinary pay, an employee, other than a shiftworker, will be paid an annual leave loading of 17.5% of their ordinary pay.

- (c) When the employment of an employee is terminated, and at the time of the termination the employee has not been given and not taken the whole of an annual leave period to which the employee became entitled, the employee will be paid their leave loading entitlement for the period not taken.

33.6 Payment of annual leave on termination

On the termination of their employment, an employee will be paid their untaken or pro-rata annual leave.

34.1 Payment for work done on public holidays

- (a) All work done by an employee during their ordinary shifts on a public holiday, including a substituted day, will be paid at 250% of their base rate of pay. Alternatively, if the employee elects, the employee will be paid half-time extra (50%) for all time worked in addition to the weekly rate and have one ordinary working day added to the period of annual leave.
- (b) The election in Clause 33.1(a) will be made on the commencement of employment and then on the anniversary date each year. The employee may not alter such election during the year except with the agreement of the employer.
- (c) Payments and entitlement under this clause are instead of any additional rate for shift or weekend work which would otherwise be payable had the shift not been a public holiday.
- (d) For the purposes of this Agreement, the following shall be deemed to be public holidays:
 - (i) New Year's Day;
 - (ii) Australia Day;
 - (iii) Good Friday;
 - (iv) Easter Saturday;

- (xii) Any other day, or part-day, declared or prescribed by or under a law of a State or Territory to be observed generally with the State or Territory, or a region of the State or Territory, as a public holiday.

If, under (or in accordance with a procedure under) a law of a State or Territory, a day or part-day is substituted for a day or part-day that would otherwise be a public holiday because of subclause 33.1(d), then the substituted day or part-day is the public holiday.

34.2 Extra Public Holiday

In addition to those eleven named public holidays specified in subclause 42.2(d), employees shall be entitled to an extra public holiday each year. Such public holiday shall occur on one of the following days as determined by the employer:

- (h) A part-time employee will only be entitled to payment for those public holidays that fall on days they are normally rostered to work.

36.2 In addition, an employee may use accumulated personal/carer's leave when on workers compensation only where his or her workers compensation payments are less than his or her normal full pay. In this case a personal/carer's leave entitlement may be used to make up the difference between the full normal pay and the workers compensation payment.

36.3 Personal/Carer's leave notification and evidence requirements:

- (a) To be entitled to leave under Clause 35 an employee must give the employer notice of the period, or expected period of the leave:

- (b) 2 separate periods of 1 day each; or
- (c) Any separate periods to which the employee and employer agree.

37.4 An employee who is entitled to a period of compassionate leave because a member of the employee's immediate family or a member of the employee's household has contracted or developed a personal illness, or sustained a personal injury, is entitled to start to take the compassionate leave at any time while the illness or injury persists.

37.5 If an employee takes compassionate leave during a period, the employer must pay the employee for that period the amount the employee would reasonably have expected to be paid by the employer if the employee had worked during that period.

37.6 Individual employees may discuss their particular circumstances with the employer in respect of the availability of any further leave.

 - (i) For the first five years' service – one month.

Schedule E - Additional Measures during the COVID-19 Pandemic

E.1 Subject to clauses E.2.1(d) and E.2.2(c), Schedule E operates until 30 June 2022 or the expiry date of Schedule X in the Nurses Award 2020, whichever is later.

E.2 During the operation of Schedule E, the following provisions apply:

E.2.1 Unpaid pandemic leave

- (a) Subject to clauses E.2.1(b), (c) and (d), any employee is entitled to take up to 2 weeks' unpaid leave if the employee is required by government or medical authorities or on the advice of a medical practitioner to self-isolate and is consequently prevented from working or is otherwise prevented from working by measures taken by government or medical authorities in response to the COVID-19 pandemic.
- (b) The employee must give their employer notice of the taking of leave under clause E.2.1(a) and of the reason the employee requires the leave, as soon as practicable (which may be a time after the leave has started).
- (c) An employee who has given their employer notice of taking leave under clause E.2.1(a) must, if required by the employer, give the employer evidence that would satisfy a reasonable person that the leave is taken for a reason given in clause E.2.1(a).
- (d) A period of leave under clause E.2.1(a) must start before 30 June 2022, but may end after 30 June 2022. These dates may vary in accordance with any later dates specified in Schedule X of the Nurses Award 2020.
- (e) Leave taken under clause E.2.1(a) does not affect any other paid or unpaid leave entitlement of the employee and counts as service for the purposes of entitlements under this award and the NES.

NOTE: The employer and employee may agree that the employee may take more than 2 weeks' unpaid pandemic leave.

E.2.2 Annual leave at half pay

- (a) Instead of an employee taking paid annual leave on full pay, the employee and their employer may agree to the employee taking twice as much leave on half pay.
- (b) Any agreement to take twice as much annual leave at half pay must be recorded in writing and retained as an employee record.
- (c) A period of leave under clause E.2.2(a) must start before 30 June 2022, but may end after 30 June 2022. These dates may vary in accordance with any later dates specified in Schedule X of the Nurses Award 2020.

EXAMPLE: Instead of an employee taking one week's annual leave on full pay, the employee and their employer may agree to the employee taking 2 weeks' annual leave on half pay. In this example:

- the employee's pay for the 2 weeks' leave is the same as the pay the employee would have been entitled to for one week's leave on full pay (where one week's full pay includes leave loading under the Annual Leave clause of this Agreement);and
- one week of leave is deducted from the employee's annual leave accrual.

NOTE 1: A employee covered by this Agreement who is entitled to the benefit of clause E.2.1 or E.2.2 has a workplace right under section 341(1)(a) of the Agreement.

NOTE 2: Under section 340(1) of the Act, an employer must not take adverse action against an employee because the employee has a workplace right, has or has not exercised a workplace right, or proposes or does not propose to exercise a workplace right, or to prevent the employee exercising a workplace right. Under section 342(1) of the Act, an employer takes adverse action against an employee if the employer dismisses the employee, injures the employee in his or her employment, alters the position of the employee to the employee's prejudice, or discriminates between the employee and other employees of the employer.

NOTE 3: Under section 343(1) of the Act, a person must not organise or take, or threaten to organise or take, action against another person with intent to coerce the person to exercise or not exercise, or propose to exercise or not exercise, a workplace right, or to exercise or propose to exercise a workplace right in a particular way.

Undertakings- Section 190

I, Clare Neeson, Head of People and Culture of Heritage Care Pty Ltd give the following undertakings with respect to the Heritage Care NSW Enterprise Agreement 2021 ("the Agreement"):

I have the authority given to me by Heritage Care Pty Ltd to provide these undertakings in relation to the application before the Fair Work Commission.

1. That paragraph 3 of Agreement clause 12.2, will read " If an employee who is at least 18 years old does not give the period of notice required under clause 12.1(a), then the employer may, with the written authorisation of the employee, deduct from wages due to the employee under this Agreement an amount that is no more than one week's wages for the employee.
