Dear Gerard

Re: Implementation of task allocation for Wardspersons – Fairfield Hospital

In 2022 the Health Services Union (HSU) were notified of Fairfield Hospital's intent to consult with the Wardspersons of General Services with a view to trial an electronic centralised task allocation system whereby the tasks will be distributed by way of via two way radio.

The aim was to look at an alternative option that could provide and deliver a high level of quality care to our patients and community by centralising of the wards person's tasks in assisting to improve efficiency.

Upon the completion of the 3 month trial, staff were provided an opportunity to provide constructive feedback in the use of centralising wardsperson's tasks and use of two way radio. Feedback received showed majority were satisfied with the centralising of wardsperson's tasks.

Based on the feedback received General Services will be permanently implementing the use of the logger system from Monday, 22 May 2023.

Should you wish to discuss this further please do not hesitate to contact me on: 02 9616 8105 or via email: aoele.fuimaono@health.nsw.gov.au

Yours sincerely

Aolele Fuimaono
