COMMISSIONER MATHESON

SYDNEY, 25 MARCH 2024

Application for approval of the St Vincent’s Care Services NSW Enterprise Agreement 2023 - 2026

[1] An application has been made for approval of an enterprise agreement known as the St Vincent’s Care Services NSW Enterprise Agreement 2023 – 2026 (Agreement). The application was made by St Vincent’s Care Services Ltd (Applicant) pursuant to s.185 of the Fair Work Act 2009 (Cth) (Act). The Agreement is a single enterprise agreement.

[2] The application was accompanied by a signature page that did not comply in all respects with Regulation 2.06A of the Fair Work Regulations 2009 (Cth). An amended signature page was subsequently filed. I consider it appropriate in the circumstances to waive an irregularity in the form or manner in which an application was made and do so pursuant to s.586(b) of the Act.

[3] The Applicant, who is also the employer covered by the Agreement, has provided written undertakings. A copy of the undertakings is attached at Annexure A of this decision (Undertakings). The views of each person I know is a bargaining representative for the Agreement were sought in relation to the Undertakings and no objections were raised. I am satisfied that the effect of accepting the Undertakings is not likely to:

- (a) cause financial detriment to any employee covered by the Agreement; or
- (b) result in substantial changes to the Agreement.

[4] Subject to the Undertakings, and on the basis of the materials before the Commission, I am satisfied that each of the requirements of ss.186, 187, 188 and 190 of the Act as are relevant to the application for approval of the Agreement have been met.

[5] The Health Services Union and Australian Nursing and Midwifery Federation, being bargaining representatives for the Agreement, have given notice under s.183 of the Act that they want the Agreement to cover them. In accordance with s.201(2) of the Act, I note that the Agreement covers the organisations.

[6] The Agreement is approved and, in accordance with s.54 of the Act, will operate from 1 April 2024. The nominal expiry date of the Agreement is 30 June 2026.

Classification definitions are set out in Schedule A.

The employer must advise all employees in writing of their classification upon commencement of employment and of any subsequent changes to their employment.

- (a) A part-time employee is an employee who is engaged to work less than an average of 38 ordinary hours per week or 76 hours per fortnight consisting of not less than three (3) shifts per week or six (6) per fortnight and whose hours of work are reasonably predictable.

the foreseeable future and the employee's performance is satisfactory, an amendment to the contract in writing will be offered to the employee. The amendment will state the increased number of guaranteed minimum contracted hours in writing which reflect the hours regularly worked.

- (i) The hours worked in the following circumstances will not be incorporated in the adjustment:
 - (A) if the increase in hours is as a direct result of an employee being absent on leave, such as for example, annual leave, long service leave, parental leave, workers compensation; and
 - (B) if the increase in hours is due to a temporary increase in hours, for example, due to the specific needs of a resident or client.
- (ii) Should there be a need for the employer to consider reducing the working hours of part-time employees because of the changed dependency of residents it will be managed in accordance with Clauses 34 Consultation and Clause 36 Redundancy, including 36.4 Payment in Lieu of Reduced Hours. In addition, correct notice will be given to the employee in accordance with clause 38.7.
- (iii) In addition to those matters covered in sub-clause 12.5(d)(ii), changes to hours for Home Care employees may be affected by:

 - (C) client preferences for services including their ability to choose particular care workers.
- (iv) The employer will not unreasonably refuse to change the hours of a Home Care employee based on the circumstances in subclause 12.5(d)(iii) unless there is an imminent change to any of those circumstances.

 - (B) during at least the last 6 months of that period, the Employee has worked a regular pattern of hours on an ongoing basis which, without significant adjustment, the Employee could continue to work as a full-time Employee or a part-time Employee (as the case may be).

- (ii) Notwithstanding sub-clause (i), the Employer is not required to make an offer of full time or part time employment to a casual Employee if there are reasonable grounds not to make the offer, and the reasonable grounds are based on facts that are known, or reasonably foreseeable, at the time of deciding not to make the offer.
- (iii) The nature and process to be undertaken in relation to an offer to a casual Employee of full time or part time employment, and an Employee's residual right to request casual conversion, is set out in the NES.
- (c) Casual employees will be paid a 25% loading (calculated on the base rate of pay).
- (d) Minimum Engagement: A casual employee will be engaged for a minimum period of two (2) hours on each occasion.

 - (i) At the end of the specified or outlined period, the Maximum Term Employee's contract will come to an end and there is no guarantee of ongoing work, nor any entitlement to redundancy or notice of termination.
 - (ii) If engaged for a specified period of days or time, the Employer will be bound to employ the employee for that set period.
 - (iii) If engaged up to a maximum period, the Employer may vary the length of the engagement or terminate the engagement at its absolute discretion in accordance with the Act. In the event that the maximum term period is to be varied, the employer is to provide a minimum of two (2) weeks' notice to the employee of its intention to terminate the engagement.
 - (iv) In the event that an employee has been engaged for a maximum period of twenty-four (24) months on a maximum term engagement basis and the role is to continue past this time, then the employee is to be offered full-time or part-time employment.
 - (v) If after a cumulative total of twenty-four (24) months, regardless of whether that period is continuous or broken over multiple maximum term roles, no full-time or part-time role is available, an employee may be offered, subject to a position being available, employment on a casual basis.
 - (vi) An employee can be offered multiple maximum term roles by the employer provided that the conditions outlined above are observed. This option takes into account the opportunity for an employee to relieve in more than one position within the Employer should they be agreeable to do so

12.8 Trainees:

Trainees in non-clinical classifications shall be employed in accordance with the Trainee provisions set out in either the Aged Care Award 2010 or the Social Community Home Care and Disability Industry Award 2010, depending on their classification. The rate applicable to Trainees employed under this Agreement will attract a further 3% above the Trainee rate in the relevant Award.

12.9 Supported Wage

Employees in non-clinical classifications covered by the Aged Care Award 2010 or the Social Community Home Care and Disability Industry Award 2010 who, because of the effects of a disability would be eligible for a supported wage if the Award applied shall be employed in accordance with the Supported Wage provisions of the relevant Award. In addition, the employee shall receive a further 3% above the Supported Wage rate in the Award.

12.10 Recognition of Service and Experience

- (a) From the time of commencement of employment an employee has four (4) weeks in which to provide documentary evidence to the Employer detailing any other relevant service or experience not disclosed at the time of commencement. The Employer shall advise the employee of this timeframe and requirement in the employee's contract of employment/letter of appointment.
- (b) Until such time as the employee furnishes any such documentation contemplated in sub-clause (a), the Employer shall pay the employee at the level for which proof has been provided.
- (c) If within four (4) weeks of commencing employment an employee does provide documentary evidence of other previous relevant service or experience not disclosed at the time of commencement, the Employer shall pay the employee at the appropriate rate from the date of commencement that would have been paid from, had the additional evidence been provided at that time.
- (d) If an employee provides documentary evidence of other previous relevant service or experience not disclosed at the time of commencement after the said four (4) week period, the employee shall be paid a rate appropriate for the previous relevant service or experience then proved, but only from the date of providing that evidence to the Employer.
- (e) An employee who is working in the same classification for more than one organisation shall notify the Employer within four (4) weeks of the end of each quarter of their hours worked with those other employers in the last quarter.
- (f) An employee who is entitled to progress to the next year of service or experience (by reason of hours worked with other employers) as and from a particular date must provide proof of that entitlement within four (4) weeks of that entitlement arising. If that proof is provided, the employee shall be paid at the higher rate as and from the date they were entitled to progress to the next year of service or experience. If the proof is provided outside that four (4) week period, the employee shall be paid at the higher rate only from the date that proof is provided.
- (g) For the purpose of pay point progression based on service and experience, an employee must complete 1186 hours of work to progress from one pay point to the next as applicable. Exceptions to this apply for a Care Service Employee Care Stream progressing from pay point 2.1 to pay point 2.2 where the requirement is that 2 years' experience of work in the Care Stream needs to have been worked. The other exception relates to a Care Service Employee New Entrant who can progress to Grade 1 after 500 hours work in the industry.

12.11 Re-grading of Employee Classification

- (a) Where the nature of the work undertaken by an employee change, such that the majority of the work regularly performed is work of a type normally associated with a higher classification, the employee may apply to have their position reclassified to the higher classification.
- (b) Changes in work by themselves may not lead to a change in an employee's substantive classification. Factors with a bearing on the decision may include whether the changes:
 - (i) involve the exercise of skills, responsibility and/or autonomy normally undertaken at a higher classification;
 - (ii) are permanent or temporary; and/or
 - (iii) involve work at a higher classification or not (e.g. simply performing more work at the same classification or different work at the same classification would not qualify for re-grading)

12.12 National Criminal History Record Check

- (a) It is a condition of employment that employees, contractors and volunteers, who have, or are reasonably likely to have access to care recipients undergo a National Criminal History Record Check – Vulnerable People, commonly known as a Police Check on commencement of employment and at any other time as directed by the Employer.
- (b) The Employer will pay the cost of renewal of Police Checks for employees required to undergo such checks.
- (c) New employees will be required to pay for their initial Police Check before commencing employment.

13 PAY AND PAYMENT

13.1 Wage Rates and Classification Structure

Some employees engaged within SVCS Auburn, SVCS Bronte and SVCS Edgecliff at the time that the SVCS NSW Enterprise Agreement 2018 – 2020 took effect were on a higher rate of pay than the rate in Schedule B of that agreement. These employees will continue to have their salary differential maintained and will have their current rate of pay increased in line with the percentage increases provided for in this Agreement.

Where the Commonwealth Government provides additional funding to the employer for the purpose of increasing employee wages, the base rates of pay in Schedule B will be increased to reflect this additional funding. If this occurs, a new wages table will be agreed to by the employer and the unions and will replace the wages table at Schedule B.

The following wage increases shall apply to all Employees covered by this Agreement.

Date of Effect	Increase
First pay period commencing on or after 1 July 2023	4%
First pay period commencing on or after 1 July 2024	3%
First pay period commencing on or after 1 July 2025	3%

13.2 Full-Time and Part-Time Employees

- (a) The base rates of pay in the appropriate employment classification for full-time employees and for part-time employees shall be the hourly rates of pay set out in the Tables in Schedule B of this Agreement.
- (b) Part-Time Employees have the benefit of all of the other entitlements set out in this Agreement on a pro rata basis.

13.3 Casual Employees

- (a) The base rates of pay in the appropriate employment classification for casual employees shall be the hourly rates of pay set out in the Tables in Schedule B of this Agreement. In addition, a casual loading of 25% is payable.
- (b) Where it is expressly stated in this Agreement that overtime and public holiday payments are to be made to casual employees, such payments shall be taken to be inclusive of and not in addition to the casual loading referred to in this sub-clause.
- (c) A casual employee's entitlement to long service leave is governed by the provisions of the Long Service Leave Act 1955 (NSW).

13.4 Trainees

- (a) The base rates of pay in the appropriate employment classification for trainees shall be as set out in clause 12.8 of this agreement.

13.5 Live-in Home Carer

- (a) Live-in Home Carer shall mean a Home Care employee who lives at the client's premises for a period of twenty-four (24) hours or more.
A 24-hour care shift requires an employee to be available for duty in a client's home for a 24-hour period. During this period, the employee is required to provide the client with the services specified in the care plan. The employee is required to provide a total of no more than eight (8) hours of care during this period. The number of hours worked is monitored via an electronic time and attendance system to ensure that the maximum of eight (8) hours of care is not exceeded. An employer may only require an employee to work a 24-hour care shift by agreement.
- (b) The employee will normally have the opportunity to sleep during a 24-hour care shift and employees will be provided with a separate room with a bed and clean linen, the use of appropriate facilities (including access to food preparation facilities and staff facilities where these exist) and free board and lodging for each night when the employee sleeps over.

This additional leave may be taken on a pro-rata basis each five (5) years after completing the initial ten (10) year period of service.
- (b) Where the services of an employee with at least five (5) years' service are terminated by the Employer for any reason other than the employee's serious and wilful misconduct, or by the employee on account of illness, incapacity or domestic or other pressing necessity, or by reason of the death of the employee, he/she shall be entitled to be paid a proportionate amount on the basis of two (2) months for ten (10) years' service.

28.3 For the purpose of clause 28.2:

- (a) service shall mean continuous service with any one employer/organisation;
- (b) service shall:
 - (i) not include any period of leave without pay except in the case of employees who have completed at least ten (10) years' service (any period of absence without pay being excluded therefrom) in which case service shall include any period without pay not exceeding six (6) months taken after 1 June 1980;
 - (ii) include half the period of Long Service Leave taken where an employee elects to take Long Service Leave at half pay in accordance with clause 28.7;
 - (iii) not count for casual employees who have had a break in engagements of more than three (3) months.

28.4 The employer shall give to each employee at least one (1) months' notice of the date from which it is proposed that the employee’s long service leave shall be given and taken. Long service leave shall be taken as soon as practicable having regard to the needs of the workplace, or where the Employer and the employee agree, such leave may be postponed to an agreed date.

- (a) On the termination of employment of an employee, otherwise than by his or her death, the Employer shall pay to the employee the monetary value of all long service leave accrued and not taken at the date of such termination and such monetary value shall be determined according to the salary payable to the employee at the date of such termination.

- (b) Where an employee who has acquired a right to long service leave, or after having had 5 years' service and less than ten (10) years' service dies, the employee's personal representative shall, upon request, be entitled to receive the monetary value of the leave not taken or which would have accrued to such employee had his or her services terminated as referred to in clause 28.2(b) and such monetary value shall be determined according to the salary payable to the employee at the time of his or her death.
- (c) The minimum period of long service leave which may be taken at any one time will be two (2) weeks.
- (d) Where the employee becomes ill and is granted Personal or Carers leave in lieu of long service leave previously approved, the period of long service leave actually taken will not be subject to the minimum period requirement set out in paragraph 28.5 (c).
- (e) Adjustments to long service leave for personal leave where an employee falls sick or suffers an injury while on long service leave and provides to the Employer a medical certificate with a specified medical diagnosis to show they were incapacitated to the extent that normal duties could not be performed for a period of three (3) days, and where the employee has accrued personal leave, the Employer shall debit such time as personal leave and no deduction will be made from the employee's long service leave balance for the absence.

28.6 Where an employee has been granted a period of long service leave prior to the coming into force of this Agreement, the amount of such leave shall be debited against the amount of leave due under this Agreement.

Employees of the Employer previously covered by long service leave provisions or arrangements contained in industrial instruments or State legislation will have their long service leave accrued entitlement carried over but the accrual and access to long service leave entitlements from the date of transfer shall be in accordance with this Agreement (e.g. an employee with fifteen (15) years' continuous service under an industrial instrument or State legislation at the time of transfer may have an accrued entitlement of three (3) months long service leave). From this time onwards employees would accrue their entitlements in accordance with this Agreement, at the rate of 2.5 months for each five years' service as the continuity of service for long service leave purposes is not affected by the entering into of this Agreement. Thus, after twenty (20) years continuous service the employee would be entitled to 5.5 months long service leave, made up of three (3) months under the previous industrial instrument or State legislation and a further 2.5 months under this Agreement.

- (a) With the agreement of the Employer, an employee may take long service leave on half the ordinary pay thereby increasing the period of paid leave which can be taken. For example, an employee who is eligible for thirteen (13) weeks paid long service leave can take twenty-six (26) weeks paid long service leave at half their ordinary pay.

- (b) During a period of long service leave on half the ordinary pay accrual of annual leave and personal/carer's leave will be on the basis of half the ordinary hours of work.
- (c) At the request in writing by the employee, and by agreement with the Employer, Long Service Leave entitlements may be taken as double the quantum of leave at half pay or half the quantum of leave at double pay.

29 REPATRIATION LEAVE

29.1 Employees who are ex-servicemen or ex-service women may be granted special leave in one or more periods up to a maximum of 6½ working days in any period of twelve (12) months without deduction from annual or sick leave credits for the following purposes in connection with an accepted war-caused disability or in connection with an application to the Repatriation Department for a disability to be so accepted:

- (a) to attend a hospital or clinic or visit a medical officer in that regard;
- (b) to attend a hospital, clinic or medical officer or to report for periodical examination or attention;
- (c) to attend limb factories for the supply, renewal and repair of artificial replacements and surgical appliances.

29.2 Employees are to provide the Employer with documentary evidence as to the attendance prior to the payment of special leave being granted.

30 LEAVE WITHOUT PAY

30.1 By agreement between the Employer and a permanent employee, an employee may be granted a period of leave without pay. Leave without pay can only be applied for when all other relevant leave entitlements have been exhausted.

30.2 The period of leave without pay will not break the continuity of service of the employee but will not count for the purpose of:

- (a) accruing annual leave or personal/carer's leave, incremental progression, and public holidays;
- (b) accruing long service leave, except in the case of employees who have completed at least ten (10) years' service (any period of absence without pay being excluded therefrom) in which case service shall include any period without pay not exceeding six months taken after 1 June 1980;
- (c) severance pay in accordance with clause 36 – Redundancy

31 CEREMONIAL LEAVE

An employee who is required by Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander tradition to be absent from work for Aboriginal ceremonial purposes will be entitled to up to ten (10) working days' unpaid leave in any one (1) year, with the approval of the Employer.

32 NATURAL DISASTER LEAVE

32.1 Where a permanent employee is unable to attend work because of a natural disaster (e.g., bushfire or flood), they will be entitled to ordinary pay for the shift they would otherwise have worked on that day. This entitlement will normally apply once per calendar year to each type of natural disaster and is not cumulative from year to year.

32.2 The Employer may require the employee to provide evidence to support their claim.

33 FAMILY AND DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

33.1 Definitions

- (a) Family and Domestic Violence includes acts or threats of violence, not including acts of self-defence, committed by a current or former spouse of the victim, by a person with whom the victim shares a child in common, by a person who is cohabitating with or has cohabitated with the victim, by a person who is or has been in a continuing social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim, or a person who is or has continually or at regular intervals lived in the same household as the victim.

- (f) A full time or part time employee who has established evidence of being the victim of Family or Domestic Violence with the Employer may utilise the following leave entitlements for medical appointments, legal proceedings and other activities related to Family and Domestic Violence.

- (i) Up to 10 days paid leave per calendar year to attend medical appointments, counselling, legal proceedings, arrange to relocate and/or any other activities related to the effects of family and domestic violence.
- (ii) Family and domestic violence leave can be taken as a part day absence.
- (iii) This leave does not accrue from year to year and will not be paid out if unused.

33.3 Casual employees will be entitled to unpaid Family and Domestic leave.

PART 4 - OTHER PROVISIONS

34 CONSULTATION

34.1 Consultation regarding major workplace change

Employer to notify

- (a) Where the Employer has made a definite decision to introduce major changes in production, program, organisation, structure or technology that are likely to have significant effects on employees, the Employer must notify the employees who may be affected by the proposed changes and their representatives, if any, which may be the union.
- (b) Significant effects include termination of employment; major changes in the composition, operation or size of the Employer's workforce or in the skills required; the elimination or diminution of job opportunities, promotion opportunities or job tenure; the alteration of hours of work; the need for retraining or transfer of employees to other work or locations; and the restructuring of jobs. Provided that where this Agreement makes provision for alteration of any of these matters an alteration is deemed not to have significant effect.

34.2 Employer to discuss change

- (a) The Employer must discuss with the employees affected and their representatives, if any, the introduction of the changes referred to in clause 34.1, the effects the changes are likely to have on employees and measures to avert or mitigate the adverse effects of such changes on employees and must give prompt consideration to matters raised by the employees and/or their representatives in relation to the changes.
- (b) The discussions must commence as early as practicable after a definite decision has been made by the employer to make the changes referred to in clause 34.1.
- (c) For the purposes of such discussion, the Employer must provide in writing to the employees concerned and their representatives, if any, which may be the union, all relevant information about the changes including the nature of the changes proposed, the expected effects of the changes on employees and any other matters likely to affect employees provided that the Employer is not required to disclose confidential information the disclosure of which would be contrary to the Employer's interests.

34.3 Consultation regarding changes to regular rosters or ordinary hours of work

- (a) Where the Employer proposes to change an employee's regular roster or ordinary hours of work, the Employer must:
 - (i) provide information about the change to the employee or employees affected; and
 - (ii) invite the employee or employees affected to give their views about the impact of the change, including any impact in relation to their family or caring responsibilities; and
 - (iii) consider any views given by employees about the impact of the change.
 - (iv) The Employer or employee may appoint a representative for the purposes of this clause. The identity of the representative must be advised to the other party.
- (b) The obligations under sub-clause (a) shall be read in conjunction with the other agreement provisions concerning the scheduling of work and notice requirement, including but not limited to clause 15 - Hours and clause 16 - Rosters.
- (c) This clause is to be read in conjunction with other provisions in this Agreement concerning the scheduling of work and notice requirements.
- (d) The requirement to consult under this clause does not apply where an employee has irregular, sporadic or unpredictable working hours.

35 PEAK CONSULTATIVE COMMITTEE

A Peak Consultative Committee will be established to foster constructive communication and understanding between St Vincent's Care Services, the Health Services Union NSW Branch (HSU) and the ANMF NSW Branch / NSWNMA on matters which have organisation wide impact or implications.

- (a) The meetings will be a forum to discuss:
 - (i) organisation-wide issues, such as workforce structure and resident care outcomes;
 - (ii) exchange of information and views, particularly about major initiatives or significant workplace change;
 - (iii) wider issues affecting the aged care industry, such as union industry campaigns and government reforms;
 - (iv) matters unable to be resolved elsewhere.
- (b) Local or individual issues will continue to be dealt with at a local level. Separate meetings may also be held with individual unions on an agreed as needs basis.
- (c) The committee will be made up of:
 - (i) Representatives from St Vincent's Care Services management, both local and head office;
 - (ii) Representatives from the Health Services Union NSW Branch, which will include HSU delegates;
 - (iii) Representatives from the ANMF NSW Branch / NSWNMA, which will include ANMF NSW Branch / NSWNMA delegates; and
 - (iv) Employee representatives.
- (d) The Peak Consultative Committee will meet three times per year. Any party may make a request for a special meeting if circumstances so warrant. The parties may also agree to meet less than three times per year.

- (i) Agenda items should be submitted to the committee members two weeks before each meeting. SVCS will forward a proposed agenda prior to the meeting.
- (ii) Minutes, including outcomes and action items, shall be forwarded to each participant as soon as practical following the meeting.
- (iii) Where matters are unresolved through the consultative process, the parties retain their rights to utilise the Dispute Settlement Procedure at clause 48.

36 REDUNDANCY

36.1 For the purposes of this clause, “continuous service” shall mean the period during which the Employee is employed by the Employer but does not include any of the following periods (Excluded Periods):

- a) Any period of unauthorised absence;
- b) Any period of unpaid leave or unpaid authorised absence, other than:
 - (i) Community service leave; and
 - (ii) Any period of stand down.

Any of the Excluded Periods do not break an Employee’s continuous service with the Employer, however it does not count towards the length of that Employee’s continuous service.

36.2 Redundancy occurs where the Employer has made a definite decision that the Employer no longer wishes the job the employee has been doing to be done by anyone and this is not due to the ordinary and customary turnover of labour.

36.3 Unless the FWC subsequently orders otherwise pursuant to clause 36.6, where the employment of an employee is to be terminated for the reason set out in clause 36.2 the Employer shall pay, in addition to other payments due to that employee, the following retrenchment pay in respect of the following continuous periods of service:

- (a) Where the employee is under 45 years of age, the Employer shall pay the employee in accordance with the following scale:

Minimum Years of Service	Retrenchment Pay
Less than 1-year	Nil
1 year and less than 2 years	4 weeks’ pay
2 years and less than 3 years	7 weeks’ pay
3 years and less than 4 years	10 weeks’ pay
4 years and less than 5 years	12 weeks’ pay
5 years and less than 6 years	14 weeks’ pay
6 years and over	16 weeks’ pay

- (b) Where the employee is 45 years of age or over, the Employer shall pay the employee in accordance with the following scale:

Minimum Years of Service	Retrenchment Pay
Less than 1-year	Nil
1 year and less than 2 years	5 weeks' pay
2 years and less than 3 years	8.75 weeks' pay
3 years and less than 4 years	12.5 weeks' pay
4 years and less than 5 years	15 weeks' pay
5 years and less than 6 years	17.5 weeks' pay
6 years and over	20 weeks' pay

- (c) Weeks' pay means the rate of pay for the employee concerned at the date of termination, and shall include in addition to the ordinary pay any over-agreement payments and the following, if applicable:
- (i) shift and weekend penalties as prescribed in clause 19 – Shift and Weekend Work;
 - (ii) broken shift allowance as prescribed in clause 15.4 – Broken Shifts;
 - (iii) sleepover allowance as prescribed in clause 21.4– Sleepover Allowance.
- (d) Where an employer has given notice of termination to an employee in circumstances of redundancy, the employee must be allowed time off without loss of pay up to one day each week of the minimum period of notice prescribed by section 117(3) of the Act, for the purpose of seeking other employment.
- (e) If an employee is allowed time off without loss of pay of more than one day under paragraph 1(a), the employee must, at the request of the employer, produce proof of attendance at an interview.
- (f) A statutory declaration is sufficient for the purpose of paragraph (e).
- (g) An employee who fails to produce proof when required under paragraph (b) is not entitled to be paid for the time off.

36.4 Payment in lieu of reduced hours

- (a) Any proposal for an employee to reduce their minimum number of contracted hours will be subject to consultation as per the provisions in Clause 34 Consultation.
- (b) In the case of a proposed reduction of minimum contracted hours, employees will be offered a payment in lieu of the reduced hours. The payment will be made where the employee agrees.
- (c) It will be calculated based on the pro-rata rate of a full redundancy, at the time of the reduction, using the following formula:

$$\text{Payment} = (\text{Eligible full-time entitlement} / 38) \times \text{Number of hours reduced}$$

For example: An employee with 3 years tenure has their minimum contracted hours reduced by 5 hours, from 20 hours per week to 15 hours per week.

The payment would be the full 3-year redundancy entitlement, divided by 38 to establish the per hour redundancy entitlement, then multiplied by 5 to recognise the 5 hours reduced.

36.5 Payment in lieu of reduced classification

- (a) To mitigate the negative impacts of a redundancy, an employee may be transferred to new duties to which a lower ordinary rate of pay applies, a transfer will only take place where the Employer offers, and the employee accepts, the transfer to lower paid duties.

Enrolled and Registered Nurses are strongly advised to seek professional advice before accepting an offer.

- (b) Any proposal for an employee to transfer to lower paid duties will be subject to consultation as per the provisions in Clause 34 Consultation.
- (c) If an employee accepts an offer to be transferred to lower paid duties, the employee will be paid a compensation payment to recognise the reduced rate of pay.
- (d) The compensation payment will be the difference between the redundancy payment the employee would have received in their former role (i.e. the redundant role), minus the employee's eligible redundancy entitlement in the new role (i.e. the role they agreed to be transferred to).

Compensation payment = Former redundancy entitlement – New redundancy entitlement

For example: A full time CSE Grade 2 with three years tenure has a redundancy entitlement $8,766. As an alternative to a redundancy, they accept a role as a CSE Grade 1. In the new role they now have a redundancy entitlement of $8,246. Therefore, the difference between the redundancy entitlements of $520 is payable to the employee, to recognise the reduced rate of pay.

The number of hours calculated must also include the number of hours that the employee is entitled to in terms of the applicable period of notice.

The payment is to be treated in line with the relevant taxation guidelines.

- (e) Where an employee has transferred to a position with a lower rate of pay, all entitlements including sick leave, annual leave and long service leave accrued at the time of the transfer are to be preserved at the higher rate applicable prior to the transfer, and all leave taken after the transfer date will be paid at the higher rate until the preserved accruals are exhausted. New leave accruals applicable as from the date of transfer to the lower paid position will accrue at the lower rate of pay.

- 36.6 Subject to an application by the Employer and further order of the FWC the Employer may pay a lesser amount (or no amount) of retrenchment pay than that contained in sub-clause 36.3. The FWC shall have regard to such financial and other resources of the Employer concerned as the FWC thinks relevant, and the probable effect paying the amount of retrenchment pay in clause 36.3 will have on the Employer.

37 DISCIPLINARY MATTERS

- 37.1 In all dealings with employees, which may lead to a disciplinary outcome, including termination, the Employer commits to the principles of procedural fairness, natural justice and the right to a support person.
- 37.2 An employee required to attend a disciplinary meeting will be entitled to ordinary pay for the duration of the meeting.

38 TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT

- 38.1 Prior to reaching any decision to terminate the employment of an employee on grounds other than would justify summary dismissal, the Employer will:
- (a) inform the employee that the termination of their employment is being considered;
 - (b) advise the employee of the reasons for termination; and
 - (c) provide the employee with an opportunity to show cause why their employment should not be terminated.
- 38.2 An employee shall be given reasonable time to respond and shall be provided with details of any relevant material. Where a meeting is held with the employee, the employee is entitled to have a support person present. The support person may be a co-worker, a workplace union delegate, an officer of the union, a family member, or any other person.
- 38.3 Subject to clauses 38.4 to 38.6, the employment of an employee, (other than the employment of a casual), will be terminated by the Employer or the employee only on the provision of the applicable notice as set out in clause 38.7, or by the payment by the Employer, or forfeiture by the employee, of wages in lieu of notice.
- 38.4 The Employer may, without notice, summarily dismiss an employee at any time for serious misconduct or wilful disobedience. Payment is up to the time of dismissal only.
- 38.5 Provided that employment may be terminated by part of the period of notice specified, and part payment or part forfeiture, in lieu of the period of notice specified.
- 38.6 :If an employee who is at least 18 years old does not give the period of notice required under clause 38.7, and has authorised the Employer to deduct money in lieu of the notice from his or her wages, the Employer may deduct an amount not exceeding one week's wages for the employee. Such deduction must be reasonable in the circumstances. If the Employer has agreed to a shorter period of notice than that required under clause 38.7, then no deduction will be made.

38.7 Notice of termination

- (a) Period of Continuous Service Minimum Period of Notice

1 Year or less	1 week
More than 1 year but not more than 3 years	2 weeks
More than 3 years but not more than 5 years	3 weeks
More than 5 years	4 weeks

(b) Employees (other than casuals) aged 45 years or older will be entitled to an additional one (1) weeks' notice if the employee has completed at least two (2) years' continuous service for the Employer.

(c) Casuals are to be given notice to the end of the current shift worked.

38.8 The Employer will give the employee a statement signed by the Employer stating the period of employment and when the employment was terminated if the employee requests.

38.9 Abandonment of Employment

(a) If an employee is absent from work for a continuous period exceeding three rostered working days and the Employer is unaware of the reason for this absence, the consultation procedure in this clause applies.

(b) In the circumstances described in (a), the Employer will provide the employee with an opportunity to explain this absence before the Employer takes any action against the employee.

For this purpose, the Employer must:

(i) Allow a period of 10 days after the employee's last attendance at work or notified absence from work for contact to be made with the employee or for the employee to make contact with the Employer; and

(ii) Attempt to contact the employee during the above 10-day period using all reasonable means available to the Employer.

(c) If the Employer terminates the employment of an employee, the employer must provide notice of termination in accordance with Clause 38.7.

(d) Nothing in this clause detracts from the right of an employee to access any legal remedies arising from any action taken against the employee or from the rights of the Employer to lawfully terminate the employment of the employee in other circumstances.

Note: Section 352 of the Act provides that an employer must not dismiss an employee if the employee is temporarily absent from work due to an illness or injury of a kind prescribed.

39 LABOUR FLEXIBILITY AND MIXED FUNCTIONS

39.1 The Employer may direct an employee to carry out such duties as are within the limits of the employee's skill, competence, and training.

39.2 The Employer may direct an employee to carry out such duties and use such tools and equipment as may be required, provided the employee possesses the relevant skills and competence to perform such tasks. Where the employee does not possess such skills and competence, appropriate training shall be facilitated.

39.3 Any direction issued by the Employer pursuant to sub-clauses 39.1 and/or 39.2 shall be consistent with the Employer's responsibility to provide a safe and healthy working environment for employees, and the Employer's duty of care to residents and/or clients.

40 WORKLOAD MANAGEMENT

40.1 The parties to this agreement acknowledge that employees and management have a responsibility to maintain a balanced workload and recognise the adverse effects that excessive workloads may have on employee/s and the quality of resident/client care. The Employer has a responsibility to maintain a safe level of care for residents. Vacancies for essential services positions (namely nurses, care services employees and hotel services) arising from staff absences shall be filled to the best of the Employer's ability.

Where additional resources are identified as being required for a short-term basis, the Employer will first use an internal employee prior to engaging contractors, however from time to time the use of contractors or agency staff may be unavoidable.

40.2 To ensure that employee concerns involving excessive workloads are effectively dealt with by Management the following procedures should be applied:

- (a) In the first instance, employee/s should discuss the issue with their immediate supervisor and, where appropriate, explore solutions.
- (b) If a solution cannot be identified and implemented, the matter should be referred to an appropriate senior manager for further discussion.
- (c) If a solution still cannot be identified and implemented, the matter should, where possible be referred to the Facility Manager for further discussion.
- (d) The outcome of the discussions at each level and any proposed solutions should be recorded in writing and fed back to the effected employees.
- (e) At each of the steps above the parties should aim to agree on a reasonable time frame for response.

40.3 If the issue is still unresolved, the employee/s may advance the matter through clause

41 SUPERANNUATION

41.1 The Employer will make superannuation contributions into an approved Superannuation Fund nominated by the employee in accordance with the Superannuation Guarantee (SG) legislation as varied from time to time. An approved fund must offer a "My Super" product.

41.2 An 'approved fund' means a complying superannuation fund; provided that the Employer shall not unreasonably withhold agreement unless it establishes good and proper reasons for the withholding of agreement.

41.3 An employee will nominate one approved fund to which all statutory superannuation contributions shall be paid.

41.4 Should an employee fail to nominate a fund, the employer will make superannuation contributions to the Employee's 'stapled' Superannuation fund identified by the ATO. If the Employee has no 'stapled' fund, the Employer will make superannuation contributions to the e Health Employees'

Superannuation Trust Australia (H.E.S.T.A.) as the approved default fund into which contributions shall be paid under this Agreement.

- 41.5 The superannuation contributions will be paid at ordinary pay, which for the purpose of this Agreement includes ordinary time worked on public holidays and public holiday loadings.
- 41.6 The Employer shall make, in respect of qualified employees, superannuation contributions into an approved fund on a monthly basis. With respect to casual employees, contributions shall be remitted at least quarterly.

41.7 Salary Sacrifice to Superannuation

- (a) An employee can elect to sacrifice a portion of salary to superannuation. Such election must be made prior to the commencement of the period of service to which the earnings relate and be in accordance with relevant legislation.
- (b) Salary sacrifice to superannuation means the option of making additional superannuation contributions by electing to sacrifice a portion of the gross earnings (pre-tax dollars). This will give the effect of reducing the taxable income by the amount for salary sacrifice.
- (c) The Employer will not use any amount that is salary sacrificed by an employee to count towards the Employer's obligation to pay contributions under the SG legislation.
- (d) Contributions payable by the Employer in relation to the SG legislation shall be calculated by reference to the salary which would have applied to the employee under this Agreement in the absence of any salary sacrifice.
- (e) Any additional superannuation contributions made in accordance with this clause shall be paid into the same superannuation fund that receives the Employer's SG contributions.
- (f) Any allowance, penalty rate, overtime payment for unused leave entitlements, other than any payments for leave taken whilst employed, shall be calculated by reference to the salary which would have applied to the employee in the absence of any salary sacrifice to superannuation. Payment for leave taken whilst employed will be at the post-salary sacrificed amount.

42 ATTENDANCE AT MEETINGS

Wherever possible, the Employer will hold meetings within the employee's ordinary hours. Any employee required by the Employer to attend meetings outside the employee's ordinary hours shall be entitled to receive their applicable rate of pay for the actual time spent in attendance at such meetings. In lieu of receiving payment, employees may, with the agreement of the Employer, be permitted to be free from duty for a period of time equivalent to the period spent in attendance at such meetings. Overtime will apply where attendance at such meetings is outside the normal rostered working time of full-time and part-time employees.

43 TRAINING

- 43.1 Employees will be given on-going training as necessary, relevant to their roles and responsibilities. Delivery of training may be via a variety of means including but not limited to face to face, on the job and e-learning. The organisation will facilitate access to the appropriate resources to undertake the training provided and the skills necessary to utilise those resources.
- 43.2 Each employee shall provide to the Employer details of their attendance at training and the Employer shall keep a record of this attendance.
- 43.3 Where practicable, such training shall be provided to employees during their normal rostered hours of work. Where this is not practicable:
- (a) Employees shall attend training outside their normal rostered working hours when required to do so by the Employer.
 - (b) The Employer shall provide employees with two (2) weeks' notice of the requirement to attend training outside of their normal rostered working hours.
 - (c) Employees attending training will be paid their applicable rate of pay for the actual time spent in attendance for the period of training. Overtime will apply where attendance at such training is outside the normal rostered working time of full-time and part-time employees.
 - (d) The Employer requiring an employee to attend training shall also pay to the employee ordinary pay for time travelling to and from a period of training referred to in clause (c) that is in excess of the time normally taken for that employee to attend work.
 - (e) When receiving travelling time as set out in sub-clause (d), an employee using his or her own vehicle for attendance at such training shall be paid the per kilometre allowance set out in Item 16 or 18 of Table 3 of Schedule B of this Agreement.
 - (f) Training provided outside the normal rostered hours of work shall be arranged so as to allow full-time employees to have at least eight or ten hours off-duty before or after training and the end or beginning of their shift, whichever is applicable as set out in Clause 15.2 - Arrangement of Hours. Where practicable, similar arrangements should also be made available to all other employees.
 - (g) Any training undertaken by an employee that occurs at a workplace is not intended to replace or supplement staffing levels and the normal levels of service delivery at such a workplace.
 - (h) For all mandatory or compliance training, where the employee is required by the Employer to attend, the employee will be rostered to attend and be paid at the applicable rate. Overtime will apply where attendance at such training is outside the normal rostered working time of full-time and part-time employees. Where an employee has not completed mandatory training by the due date, after having been provided with adequate notice of the requirement to complete such training, the employee will be stood down without pay until such mandatory training has been completed. Note: two (2) months' notice will be provided of the requirement to complete this training.
 - (i) Where an employee is concerned that they cannot or may not be able to complete mandatory training or Continuous Professional Development (CPD) requirements within the timeframes expected by the Employer

3. CLERICAL & ADMINISTRATIVE EMPLOYEES

3.1 Definition: The classification criteria in this schedule provides guidelines to determine the appropriate classification level of persons employed pursuant to this agreement. In determining the appropriate level, consideration must be given to both the characteristics and typical duties/skills.

The characteristics are the primary guide to classification as they indicate the level of basic knowledge, comprehension of issues, problems and procedures required and the level of supervision or accountability of the position. The totality of the characteristics must be read as a whole to obtain a clear understanding of the essential features of any particular level and the competency required.

The typical duties/skills are a non-exhaustive list of duties/skills that may be comprehended within the particular level. They are an indicative guide only and at any particular level employees may be expected to undertake duties of any level lower than their own. Employees at any particular level may perform/utilise one such duty/skill, or many of them, depending on the particular work allocated.

The key issue to be looked at in properly classifying an employee is the level of competency and skill that the employee is required to exercise in the work they perform, not the duties they perform per se. It will be noted that some typical duties/skills appear in more than one level, however when assigning a classification to an employee this needs to be done by reference to the specific characteristics of the level. For example, whilst word processing and copy typing are first specifically mentioned at Level 2 in terms of typical duty/skill, it does not mean that as soon as an employee operates a word processor or typewriter, they automatically become Level 2. They would achieve a Level 2 classification when they have achieved the level of skill and competency envisaged by the characteristics and the relevant indicative duties and skills of a Level 2. Level 1 in this structure is to be viewed as the level at which employees learn and gain competence in the basic clerical skills required by the employer, which in most cases would lead to progression through the classification structure as their competency and skills increase and are utilised.

3.2 Grades: All employees shall be graded in one of the following grades and informed accordingly in writing within fourteen (14) days of appointment to the position held by the employee and subsequent graded positions.

3.3 An employee shall be graded in the grade where the principal function of his or her employment, as determined by the employer, is of a clerical nature and is described in this clause.

3.4 Clerical & Administrative Employee Grade 1

(a) The employee may work under direct supervision with regular checking of progress.

(b) An employee at this grade applies knowledge and skills to a limited range of tasks. The choice of actions required is clear.

(c) Usually work will be performed within established routines, methods and procedures that are predictable, and which may require the exercise of limited discretion.

(d) Indicative tasks an employee at this level may perform are as follows:

Information Handling: Receive and distribute incoming mail; receive and dispatch outgoing mail; collate and dispatch documents for bulk mailing; file and retrieve documents

Communication: Receive and relay oral and written messages; complete simple forms.

Enterprise: Identify key functions and personnel; apply office procedures.
