

Time to get negotiations back on track!

Dear Member,

You've been without a new enterprise agreement for too long, so it's time to get negotiations back on track. Yesterday, the HSU wrote to your employer's representative to do just that.

We've had constructive negotiation in the past; however, the discussions slowed and an agreement was never finalised. It's important that enterprise agreements are renewed regularly, so that you keep up to date with fair pay increases and conditions at work.

It also means that you haven't had a chance to vote on a new agreement and we think that everyone should have that right.

To get the best outcome we need a strong and united workplace. That means union members getting active and standing together. If your colleagues aren't HSU members yet, please ask them to join us today so that they can stay up to date on progress of the agreement. They can join online at www.hsu.asn.au/join or by calling 1300 478 679.

It's really important that your pay and conditions keep pace with the industry, so we hope that we'll be able to get negotiations back on track quickly.

We'll let all HSU members know what your employer says about progressing your enterprise agreement as soon as we hear back from them.

In unity,

Gerard Hayes
Secretary, HSU NSW/ACT/QLD
