

Thank You For Working In Aged Care Day 12 September

Dear Member,

We are pleased to announce that the HSU, as part of the Our Turn To Care campaign, will be holding a national 'Thank You For Working in Aged Care Day' on September 12th. Please see attached flyer.

This annual event is to recognise and celebrate the important work everyone does in Aged Care.

Whether you are the carer, the cleaner, kitchenhand, activities officer, home care worker, coordinator, admin, maintenance, manager, physio, GSO, team leader, RN or laundry staff, everyone in Aged Care contributes to the life of the residents and clients.

All Aged Care work is extremely important, skilled and demanding and the HSU believes that you deserve to be thanked for the great work you do.

We are working with many supportive employers to celebrate the day at your workplace. Many employers will be supporting the day with barbecues, morning/afternoon teas and special events.

We will also be using the day to highlight to the politicians in Canberra and to the wider community just how important your work is.

Join us and others from around the country in celebrating all Aged Care workers on September 12th.

If you would like assistance in celebrating the day, or have questions about which employers are supporting the day, email agedcare@hsu.asn.au or talk to your local organiser.

Encourage your workmates to join the HSU at www.hsu.asn.au/join or phone 1300 478 679 and support the Union supporting you.

In unity,

Gerard Hayes
Secretary, HSU NSW/ACT/QLD

THANK YOU

— FOR WORKING IN —

AGED CARE DAY

Every day, people working in aged care look after and support our older loved ones. Families and residents appreciate it. And the unions for aged care workers do too. That's why we are organising the inaugural 'Thank you for working in Aged Care Day'.

We invite the entire aged care community—residents, families, staff, and aged care unions—to join together to celebrate the great work done by all those working in aged care on the 12th of September 2018.
