

Hey St Basil's – Where's your new enterprise agreement?

Dear Member,

Several months ago, the HSU wrote to St Basil's management to follow up on your new enterprise agreement. Management gave the union a positive commitment in writing that they would commence bargaining with the HSU and our members. Shortly after, management's representatives got in touch again and we agreed on a reasonable process to move forward with negotiations.

Unfortunately, since then, the wheels seem to have fallen off the wagon. Things have ground to a halt and we haven't heard anything from management for months!

The HSU has now formally taken steps to get bargaining back on track. We've written to your senior management requesting an update on the situation and called on them to sit down with the union and formally meet with us to start bargaining. HSU members don't deserve to wait any longer!

If management don't come through and agree to meet – or worse, go back on their word and now refuse to bargain – we will consider our legal options to escalate the matter to the Fair Work Commission.

Members deserve to have a strong enterprise agreement in place. You deserve to have a say on your conditions at work and you deserve fair, negotiated wage increases that you can rely on.

If your colleagues are not yet HSU members, now is the time for them to join. They can join online at www.hsu.asn.au/join or by calling 1300 478 679.

We will keep members up to date as things progress.

In unity,

Gerard Hayes
Secretary, HSU NSW/ACT/QLD
