

Our Turn To Care – Public Forum in Grafton this Thursday!

Dear Member,

The HSU's flagship aged care campaign, Our Turn To Care, is coming to Grafton.

The campaign is focused on achieving appropriate funding levels for the aged care sector. This will ensure that aged care workers are able to do their jobs, receive proper remuneration, and give older Australians the respect and dignity that they deserve.

As aged care workers, you don't need to be told about the detrimental effects that the current Federal Government's cuts have had on the industry. Staffing levels, food, activities, supplies and care standards – all have taken a hit since the government progressively withdrew $3 billion in ongoing funding over a number of years. These cuts have affected regional areas disproportionately.

We need to send a strong message to politicians that our elderly deserve better. They helped to build the vibrant and prosperous country that we now enjoy. Now it's Our Turn To Care.

Please find attached a flyer for the HSU's community forum on this important issue. The forum will be held at 6pm Thursday 23 August at South Grafton Ex-Servicemen's Club, 2 Wharf St, South Grafton. In attendance will be HSU Secretary Gerard Hayes and ALP Candidate for Page, Patrick Deegan. It will be an opportunity to discuss issues that matter to us all and get up to date with the campaign. All are welcome, so please invite your colleagues, friends and neighbours.

The HSU can only fight large campaigns such as this with a strong aged care membership. If you know a workmate who is not yet a member, encourage them to join and get on board. They can join by filling out the attached form and returning it to an HSU Organiser, visiting www.hsu.asn.au/join, or calling the union on 1300 478 679.

In unity,

Gerard Hayes
Secretary, HSU NSW/ACT/QLD
