

Rally against Gosford Hospital Parking Fee Increase

Dear Member,

The new multistorey car park at Gosford Hospital is set to open in 2 days' time, accompanied by huge car parking fee increases. These increases amount to 67% within 3 months, or a $512 pay cut to health workers who don't deserve and can't afford it.

HSU members and other health workers have organised a lunchtime rally to protest this massive increase. In the first year alone, members and other health workers will pay up to $750,000 for the ability to park at work. We're angry and we're not going to take it.

When: Wednesday 13th March
Where: Lawns outside Health Services Building, Gosford Hospital
Time: 12:30pm

Making matters even worse is the fact that CCLHD is planning on ceasing the free Showground Rd offsite parking and shuttle bus service within 4 weeks, meaning Union members will have to decide between paying nearly $50 per fortnight or trying to find a parking spot on the street – a serious safety issue for shift workers.

All HSU members and health workers to invited to attend and show how angry you are. If one of your colleagues is not yet a member, tell them to help make our Union stronger by joining using the attached membership form. We need to stay strong and united in sending a very clear message to both the government and your employer that these unfair parking fees will affect workers, patients and visitors in equal measure, ultimately compromising patient care.

If you are unable to attend to attend on Wednesday you can still show your support for our campaign by liking and sharing our Facebook page HSU Central Coast.

In unity,

Gerard Hayes
Secretary, HSU NSW/ACT/QLD
