

NNSWLHD Nauseous Linen Update

Dear Member,

The LHD yesterday wrote to the HSU seeking to resolve the Nauseous Linen dispute for now (see previous HSU newsletter from 23 October here).

As of now, the LHD factsheet on Nauseous Linen has been withdrawn and the current arrangements will continue.

However, this is not the end of the dispute, as the HSU has been advised by the LHD that the Ministry of Health may be bringing out a factsheet/direction on Nauseous Linen in the New Year.

When and if that happens, the HSU will again be fighting any attempt to weaken your access to the Nauseous Linen allowance.

In unity,

Gerard Hayes
Secretary, HSU NSW/ACT/QLD
